From the President Claudia Dail

November 2016

October has been a busy month and November will be as well. All Souls and First Unitarian (Sioux City) have a working agreement for yoking a minister. Sarah Caine has accepted our offer! Sarah will join us in November. The details of allocation of her time will be worked out by the Joint Committee of Ministry, which has members from each church. November will be a transitional month, but we will have a minister again.

The Board also evaluated Children's RE and determined it was best to temporarily suspend the program. With limited volunteer and staff resources combined with few children, it has been a struggle to keep the program going. We are confident that with Sarah's direction and energy the we will be able to offer Children's RE again soon.

Fun Night was also a topic at the Board meeting, and due to lack of attendance, will be discontinued. If there is an activity or event a member would like to host or sponsor, the MIC board and announcement format can be utilized to share information with members and friends.

Our first All Team Meeting (ATM) was a success, we look forward to more members and friends joined us on November 2 meeting. This is an opportunity to learn more about how All Souls runs and to share in making it happen.

Sarah's commitment and arrival in Sioux Falls means the Ministerial Search Committee has completed their task. This dedicated group of four: Paul Thompson, Clara Jacob, Kelli Bultena, and Gordon Scott, has met for over 2 years to follow the process outlined by the UUA. Please join with me in expressing appreciation for their hard work and efforts.

Cheers!
Claudia

Sarah Caine Accepts Ministerial Position

Sarah Caine has accepted the offer to join All Souls and First Unitarian in Sioux City. She will serve All Souls on a half time basis and First Unitarian one fourth time. A Joint Committee on Ministry has been established with members from both churches, and they will work together to establish her schedule. Sarah will move to Sioux Falls and start her ministry early in November.

Sarah recently completed a year as chaplain resident in Santa Monica at St John's Health Center. While at St John's, Sarah was one of two chaplains for the oncology unit, the main chaplain for the emergency department, and supported the medical/surgical unit in addition to co-facilitating a six-week bereavement group and participating as a member at First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles.

Sarah was raised in the UU faith and felt the call to ministry while participating in the yearlong Spiritual Activist Leadership Training program with the UU Justice Ministry of California.

Sarah shared this about herself: "Born in the Mojave Desert and raised in the Sonoran Desert, I have a keen awareness of how interdependent our lives are with all that exists on this planet — justice has always been central to my understanding of faith. From the use of water to the treatment of people crossing the US-Mexico border, and just how much there is to learn about the many stories not told in classrooms. Beyond the joy of ministry, I love to spend time with my siblings and friends."

All-Team Meetings First Wednesday of Month

Would you like to help out—but you're not sure where?

The meetings of our new teams are held on the first Wednesday of each month. The next meeting will be on December 7. Come at 5:30pm to snack and socialize, and we'll start the team meetings at 6 pm.

With our new structures, all teams meet the same night. This allows people interested in committee work to check out what the teams do. And it reduces the number of meetings for everyone.

The new teams are Journey (which includes Worship, RE and Social Justice); Outreach (Communications, Hospitality, and Membership); and Finance (which includes Stewardship and Fundraising and Facilities).

Bring food to share, if you like, and we'll see you then!

Endowment Fund News Leaving a Legacy

Through the All Souls Church Endowment Fund, you have a way to support the long-term financial stability of the Church. Gift opportunities include planned gifts and out-right gifts of current assets (stocks, cash, etc.). The Endowment Fund principal is invested according to approved guidelines set forth by the committee. A return of investment of up to 5% may be expended annually for operating support or special needs of All Souls, as determined in the budget approval process. Whatever your gift and whatever the amount, your support of the Endowment Fund leaves a legacy for the future.

To give to the Endowment Fund, email joyhembel@gmail.com or call 605-215-3391.

Outreach Team Email Is Now Streamlined

Do you want to promote an upcoming event? Do you have ideas or insights to share with All Souls members? How about photos from one of our services or events?

If you have used several e-mails in the past to reach each person who plays a part in communicating the All Souls story, life just got easier.

Submitting your information is as quick and easy as sending an e-mail. The Outreach Team can be contacted at outreach@sfuu.org. Whether you want an item in the monthly newsletter, a mention in the weekly e-mails, a post on Facebook, or help with a poster or brochure, all requests go to one e-mail. The team will take it from there.

We look forward to hearing from you and are happy to help share All Souls information.

One e-mail: outreach@sfuu.org; lots of creative solutions!

Good Clean Fun

Submitted by Linda Halstrom
I hate housework. On my list of priorities, housework occupies the bottom spot. Always.

So, it was with a great deal of reluctance that I ventured to my very first Cleaning Night at All Souls. Here's the surprise: I had a great time.

No one handed out tasks or barked orders. In typical UU fashion, we all followed our own paths to fulfillment. One volunteer hated cobwebs. She took a portable vacuum with a long hose to hunt down and eliminate every sneaky cobweb from the building.

Another volunteer attacked the refrigerator, which is now nearly a work of art. Two more volunteers took on the routine tasks of vacuuming floors and emptying garbage. And me? I have been bothered by the disarray on the nametag board. I spent my time alphabetizing and rearranging nametags, which no one seemed to find odd.

Best of all, in between tasks, we found time to visit with each other. We made connections and enjoyed the company.

I believe that we all left with a sense of accomplishment, community, and service. I will be back in November. Join us for a great time of teamwork and friendship – even if you hate housework. Next cleaning evening: Monday, November 21, 5:30 p.m.

Journey Toward Justice Event Held on Sunday, October 9

All Souls Unitarian Universalist Church held another Journey towards Justice event on October 9. Musician, Bryan Akipa, entertained us and guest speaker, JR LaPlante shared "Reflections on Native American Day."

The December 19 selection is The Secret Cord by Geraldine Brooks (fiction) with leader Marcy Reisetter. This is also our holiday pot luck gathering.

Meetings are usually the 4th Monday of the month at 7pm at the church. We are snack-free.

In case of cancellation due to inclement weather, check All Souls' Facebook page. An email will be sent if possible. Questions or comments can be directed to Barb Peterson, who currently coordinates club activities at barbpeterson@sio.midco.net.

Getting to Know UU: Meet Claudia Dail

By Julia Tibbetts

Claudia Dail, current president of All Souls, when asked what she likes best about our church, says, "The people!"

Claudia is employed as a consultant by two companies – one in Baltimore, MD, and the other in Portland, OR. Thanks to the "virtual world," Claudia does her work from home here in Sioux Falls. She has been a member of All Souls for five years and has served as secretary and as a member of Safe Congregations and the Endowment Committee.

Claudia's focus during her term as president is efficiency. "As many know, I am into efficiency – if there is a way to do it with less time or energy expended, I'm all for it. I also look at other possibilities for how something can be accomplished. I prefer to work collaboratively with a group than alone."

A native of the Chicago suburb of North Riverside, Claudia used a shortcut through the Brookfield Zoo when she walked to high school. Brookfield also provided Claudia with her first "real" job. (Babysitting and a paper route were already on her resume.)

She spent five years living overseas in Bremerhaven, Germany, and Rota, Spain.

When not tending to All Souls' duties, Claudia loves spending time with her grandchildren. Claudia's son Brian and his wife Tizra live in Salt Lake City with children Misha and Ivan. Daughter Becky and husband Kyle live in Garretson with their four children Corbin, Talia, Whitney, and Hayden.

Claudia supports the local arts community by helping artists build their business skills. She has offered basic business classes through JAM and Exposure Gallery.

Each month we will be highlighting an All Souls member. If you would like to nominate someone or you're interested in being the next UU we get to know, contact Julia Tibbetts at juliatibbetts@sio.midco.net.

NOTICE: For security reasons, the church basement door will be locked on Sundays from 10:00-11:00am. Please plan to use the front door if you will arrive during that time.
Thank you!

Upcoming Fundraising Events

The mission of the Fundraising Committee at All Souls is to raise money for the operating budget of our church, to be used as determined by the board. Money raised can help pay for an RE director, a minister, church repairs, sending members to

Here is a brief description of the upcoming fundraising events this fall and winter:

*November--"A Swinging Fall Festival and Birthday Bash" is Saturday, Nov. 19, 6:30-9 pm and will be at Joann Huber's place. After our meal, Ken Abbe and Gina Pfarr-Natz will be instructing us on the fine points of the East Coast Swing. Suggested donation is $20. All parties must sign up by Monday, November 14.

The Labyrinth: A Walking Meditation

Submitted by Linda Halstrom

Are you looking for a different approach to meditation? Following a labyrinth combines movement and meditation.

A labyrinth is a design created on a floor or on the ground with a single continuous path that leads the walker to the center of the design and back out again.

The Washington National Cathedral, which offers the opportunity to walk a Chartres labyrinth, says this of the practice: Walking the labyrinth is a way of praying with the body that invites the divine presence into an active conversation with the heart and soul. By engaging in this walking meditation, we are fully engaging our minds, bodies, and spirits at the same time.

Grace Cathedral, an Episcopal church in San Francisco, explains the stages of walking a labyrinth this way:

- Purgation (Releasing) ~ A releasing, a letting go of the details of your life. This is the act of shedding thoughts and distractions. A time to open the heart and quiet the mind.

- Illumination (Receiving) ~ When you reach the center, stay there as long as you like. It is a place of meditation and prayer. Receive what is there for you to receive.

- Union (Returning) ~ As you leave, following the same path out of the center as you came in, you enter the third stage, which is joining God, your Higher Power, or the healing forces at work in the world. Each time you walk the labyrinth you become more empowered to find and do the work for which you feel your soul is reaching.

Sioux Falls residents don't have to travel to Washington, D.C. or to San Francisco to find a labyrinth. Spirit of Peace Church at 6509 South Cliff in Sioux Falls has an indoor labyrinth that non-members are welcome to use.

The labyrinth is available when the church is open (9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.) Call ahead for daily schedule, 334-2802.

An outdoor labyrinth is available at the Dell Rapids Cemetery 15 miles north of Sioux Falls.
